Polk County receives financial award

Des Moines - - Polk County Auditor Jamie Fitzgerald, today announced that Polk County has received the prestigious Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting for its comprehensive financial report (CAFR) for the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2014. The CAFR is an annual report produced by the County Auditor, Board of Supervisors, and County Treasurer.

“This award is the highest form of recognition in governmental accounting and financial reporting and signifies that Polk County is clearly communicating its financial bottom line to the taxpayers of Polk County.” Fitzgerald stated.

This is the twenty-first consecutive year that the award has been presented to Polk County. The CAFR can be downloaded on the Auditor's website or at the Polk County Auditor's Office

This award was presented by the Government Finance Officers Association, a nonprofit professional association, serving approximately 17,500 government finance professionals.
